CLASS 5- WORKSHEET

READING COMPREHENSION PASSAGE

Read the given passage and answer the following questions.

The Paper Boat Promise

It had rained for three days, and the streets were filled with puddles and flowing streams of water. Riya stood by the window, watching the drops race down the glass. Finally, on the fourth day, the sky cleared and the sun peeked through the clouds.

Riya grabbed her notebook, tore out a page, and carefully folded it into a paper boat—something her grandfather had taught her when she was little. She wrote one word on the side of the boat:

“Hope”.

She placed it gently in the stream running along the roadside and watched as it floated away. As it disappeared, she whispered a wish—to see her father, a soldier, return safely from duty.

Days passed, and Riya continued her ritual. Each day, she made a new boat with a new word: “Peace,” “Love,” “Joy.” Her neighbors noticed and began to join in. Soon, the street was filled with colorful boats carrying messages of kindness and unity.

One bright morning, as Riya prepared her boat, a familiar voice called her name. She turned around—and there stood her father, smiling and safe. Tears filled her eyes as she ran into his arms. The little boats had carried her hope far, and it had returned.

Questions:

1. What did Riya do after the rain stopped, and why?
2. What does the word “Hope” on the paper boat symbolize in the story?
3. How did the neighborhood respond to Riya’s actions?
4. What emotions did Riya experience throughout the passage? List at least three.
6. What is the main message or theme of the story?

WORKSHEET -2

READING COMPREHENSION POEM

Read the given poem and answer the questions.

Poem: "The Tree's Secret"

Deep in the forest, tall and wide,
A silent tree stands full of pride.
Its branches stretch to skies so blue,
Its roots run deep, its heart is true.

It shelters birds and squirrels small,
It listens when the raindrops fall.
It's seen the seasons come and go,
Through sun and storm, through rain and snow.

But here's the secret few have known—
Though still and quiet, it's never alone.
Each leaf, each breeze, a tale it keeps,
In bark and rings, its memory sleeps.

* Questions:*

1. What makes the tree in the poem seem wise and proud?
2. How does the poem show that the tree is alive and aware?
3. What do the lines "In bark and rings, its memory sleeps" suggest?
4. What is the "secret" the poem talks about?
5. What message do you think the poet wants to share about nature?
