WORKSHEET 1

READING COMPREHENSION PASSAGE

Read the passage given below and answer the questions.

** The Secret Garden Door****

Anaya had always been curious about the old mansion at the end of Willow Lane. Most people ignored it—it was silent, overgrown with ivy, and surrounded by a rusted iron fence. But one afternoon, while walking her dog, Anaya noticed something unusual: a small door hidden behind a curtain of vines.

She pushed the vines aside and opened the door slowly. To her amazement, it led to a garden—not the kind you see in parks, but a hidden paradise. There were flowers she had never seen, trees that sparkled as if dusted with silver, and butterflies that glowed in the sunlight.

Every day after school, Anaya returned. She watered plants, took notes in her journal, and even named the butterflies. The garden seemed to grow happier with her presence.

One evening, as she prepared to leave, a voice whispered through the breeze, "Thank you for bringing life back to this place." Anaya looked around but saw no one. The garden swayed gently, as if waving goodbye.

One evening, as she prepared to leave, a voice whispered through the breeze, "Thank you for bringing life back to this place." Anaya looked around but saw no one. The garden swayed gently, as if waving goodbye.

She later learned from an old librarian that the garden once belonged to a botanist who disappeared many years ago. No one had entered since. But somehow, Anaya had been chosen—not by chance, but by the garden itself.

READING COMPREHENSION POEM

Read the given poem and answer the following questions.

*The River's Journey***

I start my life on mountain high,
A silver thread beneath the sky.
I tumble, twist, and carve my way,
Through valleys green and fields of hay.

I whisper secrets to the stones,
And sing soft songs in quiet tones.
I greet the fish, the ferns, the trees,
And dance along the summer breeze.

But when the storms begin to roar,
I crash and surge from shore to shore.
Still on I flow, both wild and free,
Until I reach the waiting sea.

**Questions****

1. Where does the river begin its journey?
2. What does the river do as it moves through nature?
3. How does the river's behavior change during a storm?
4. What do the words "tumble, twist, and carve" tell you about the river's path?
5. What message or theme does the poet express through the river's journey?
