WORKSHEET -1
READING COMPREHENSION PASSAGE

Read the passage given below and answer the following questions.

The Timekeeper's Gift

In a quiet village nestled between snow-covered hills, there lived an old man named Elias, known as the Timekeeper. He was not a clockmaker, but a collector of stories—each tale he heard, he recorded in a leather-bound book. He believed that every story had its own time, and when shared at the right moment, it could change a life.

One winter, a young girl named Leena came to Elias. Her mother had fallen ill, and her father was away working in a distant city. Leena felt alone and afraid. She asked Elias if he had a story that could help her feel brave.

Elias smiled and opened his book. He told her the story of a mountain flower that bloomed only once every hundred years—during the harshest winter. It survived storms, snow, and freezing winds, yet still managed to blossom in silence, unnoticed by most. "True strength," Elias said, "often grows when no one is watching."

Leena listened quietly. The story didn't fix her problems, but it gave her a strange kind of comfort—like a candle flickering in the dark.

Months passed. Her mother recovered, and Leena began writing her own stories. She returned to Elias one day, carrying a notebook. "I think I'm ready," she said. Elias smiled. "Then it's your time to become a keeper."

Questions

1. Who was Elias and why was he called the Timekeeper?
2. What made Leena visit Elias during the winter?
3. What is the deeper meaning of the story Elias shared about the mountain flower?
4. How did the story affect Leena, even though it didn't change her situation?
5. Why did Elias say "every story has its own time"?
6. What message or theme does this story convey about hope, storytelling, or inner strength?

WORKSHEET -2
READING COMPREHENSION POEM

Read the poem given below and answer the following questions.

The Lighthouse

Upon the edge where oceans sigh,
A lighthouse stands beneath the sky.
It does not sleep, it does not roam,
But guides the lost and calls them home.

Its light cuts through the darkest night,
A single beam, both bold and bright.
It faces storms with steady grace,
Unmoved by time, in one firm place.

Though waves may crash and winds may cry,
The lighthouse lifts its light up high.
It speaks without a single sound—
A silent strength the sailors found.

Questions:

1. What is the main role of the lighthouse in the poem?
2. How does the poet describe the lighthouse's behavior during storms?
3. What does the line "It speaks without a single sound" mean?
4. What qualities does the lighthouse symbolize?
5. How might the lighthouse represent a person or idea in real life?
